

Year 6 First project

How to draw a better face!

Faces are notoriously difficult to draw so Year 6 are going to follow a series of exercises teaching them about proportion and how to improve their observational skills in order to draw a more realistic face. The class will then spend several weeks painting a picture of themselves or a friend or family member!

